Due to the persistent visits of our inconsiderate foe, Our Thanksgiving Day Dinner had to be postponed until today. It is with a prayer in our heart and an eye on the sky that we attempt it today. The "S" Division has given us every assurance that they will, in case of a GQ, make every effort to keep this excellent meal in its usual appealing condition.

Yesterday was Thanksgiving Day by Presidential Decree, so today's dinner will be designated as "Democrats Thanksgiving". If we should be fortunate enough to obtain more turkey etc., a Republican Thanksgiving will be held on next Thursday or thereabouts.
